

The Doctoral Consortium of ICHI 2014

Date and Time: September 17, 2014 from 3:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Venue: Polo Zanotto at the University of Verona

2:30pm – 3:00pm: poster set-up (All DC participants will present a poster)

3:00pm – 3:45pm: face-to-face mentorship

3:45pm – 4:15pm: rapid-fire talks (5 min each)

4:15pm – 5:00pm: poster viewing and coffee break

5:00pm – 5:40pm: oral presentations (10 min each)

5:40pm – 6:30pm: open discussion (faculty panel)

Rapid-fire Talks (5 min. each)

Damien Zufferey	Probabilistic Multi-Label Learning for Medical Data
Xin Xiao	Analysis of Medical Treatments Using Data Mining Techniques
Franziska Bathelt-Tok	Safe and Reliable Interoperability of Medical Devices using Data-Dependent Controller Synthesis
Fieran Mason-Blakley	Hazard Analysis and Accident Consequence Mitigation in the Context of Information Systems
Ljilja Kascak	Universally Designed Mobile Health Applications for Older Adults
Grace Shin	The Relation Between Patients Use of Activity Tracking Devices and Improved Patient Engagement and Clinical Care

Oral Presentations (10 min. each)

Roosan Islam	Understanding Complex Clinical Decision Tasks for Better Health IT System Design
Dwaipayana Biswas	Recognition of Upper Limb Movements in Remote Health Monitoring
Robin De Croon	Visualizing Quantified Self and Objective Patient Data
Frank Blaauw	Leefplezier, Personalized Well-being